

I am a supporter of K-LOVE and appreciate the programs available to me. They are uplifting, wholesome and instructional. The music is appropriate for adults and children without being offensive. They promote moral and wholesome values and I feel have a very positive impact on the communities.